Propose Area-Wide Industrial Effort

First Meeting Held at Court House; Gallatin County Invited to Form Group

The first meeting of the new effort to pull this area out of its economic slump got off to a fine start Friday night at the court house.

The approximately 100 present, including about 35 from the ranks of labor headed by Arleigh Phillips, president of the Saline County Trade and Labor Assembly, decided on an all-out effort to get all of Saline county behind a movement to get industry into the area, and is inviting Gallatin county to form an organization to unite with Saline for a two-county front. Another meeting will be held at the Saline County court house next Friday at 7:30 p. m.

Those attending the meeting voted to have all organizations that might be interested contacted in all Saline county towns and have each to name a representative and an alternate for a central committee, which also will include the three members of the Industrial committee of the Saline County Board of Supervisors, who are Raymond Field of Carrier Mills, chairman; Ewell Winkelman of Harrisburg and Aubrey Giles of Eldorado.

Winkelman Presides
Harrisburg Jaycees will contact organizations in the Harrisburg area, the Eldorado Chamber of Commerce will contact in the Eldorado area and the Carrier Mills Lions club will contact in the Carrier Mills area.

First plans regarding Gallatin county are to ask the Gallatin County Board of Supervisors to name an Industrial committee, such as has been formed here.

Mr. Winkelman presided and quite a number of those present gave remarks.

Vote to Expand Program to Dispose Of Farm Surpluses

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House has approved a $1,300,000,000 expansion of the farm surplus disposal program.

The bill was approved, 344 to 7, after the House rejected an amendment that would have blocked the administration from selling 65 million dollars worth of surplus commodities to Poland.

The bill went to a House-Senate Conference Committee to work out differences in House and Senate versions. The Senate passed it in the form requested by President Eisenhower.

The bill would extend the farm surplus disposal program for another year and authorize the administration to sell an additional one billion dollars worth of farm surpluses for foreign currency. Another 300 million dollars worth could be given to needy persons at home and abroad.

U. S. Promises To Withdraw Troops in Japan

Premier Assured To $500 Million Aid By Eisenhower

WASHINGTON (AP)—Japanese Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi wound up today a Washington visit that won approval for early withdrawal of American troops from Japan and 500 million dollars in U. S. aid.

The 60-year-old pro-American premier was highly successful in his three-day talks with President Eisenhower and other top American officials in gaining a number of objectives for bringing about a "new era" between the two countries.

Kishi won a promise from the United States to withdraw "promptly" its remaining ground forces in Japan and to "revise" the security pact to give Tokyo more of a voice in how the remaining air and naval units shall be used.

He also received assurance from Eisenhower that his demand for a complete ban on H-bomb tests will "be taken into account" in the American negotiations with the Soviet Union on this subject.

These points were reported in a joint communique issued in the name of the two leaders late Friday.

In addition, Kishi was able to arrange for about 500 million dollars in loans from the International Monetary Fund, the Export-Import Bank and the Department of Agriculture to tide Japan over its present foreign exchange shortage.

The Japanese leader also won grudging American acknowledgment that his country could increase trade with Communist China, although U. S. officials expressed fear this might lead to shipping strategic materials to the Reds.

Stratton Signs Scholarship Bill

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—A law setting up a 10 million dollar revolving fund for school construction was among more than a dozen bills signed into law Friday by Gov. William G. Stratton.

The revolving fund will provide funds for elementary school districts which have exhausted their bonding power to construct classrooms. Local districts will make "rent" payments for the schools, and when construction costs are paid the buildings will become property of the local districts.

Another bill signed Friday opens a broad program of college scholarships totaling $600,000. A state scholarship commission will administer the program which will start with 1,000 scholarships to be used at private and state supported colleges and universities.

A revamped state aid system for school transportation was also made law by the governor. The system provides more funds for districts where students live great distances apart and the transportation costs are higher.

Among the dozen bills signed Friday were some 28 million dollars in appropriations measures for the operation of state teachers colleges, Eastern, Western, Northern and Illinois State Normal Universities, for 1957-58.

Supreme Court Postpones Its Recess to Settle Girard Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today underlined the importance the United States places on the Girard case by postponing its recess to settle the legal tangle arising from it.

The court, which has not sat in July during recent times, set July 8 for hearings in the case.

Extension of the court term, already one of the longest in recent years, disrupted vacation plans of most of the justices.

Justice William O. Douglas, a veteran summer traveler, already has left for Europe and his schedule calls for him to be heading for the Khyber Pass and Afghanistan in a station wagon on July 8.

The Girard case has touched off an international dispute and U. S. officials feel it jeopardizes relations with a number of allies.

It arose after Army Specialist 3c William S. Girard killed a Japanese woman as she was scavenging for scrap metal on an Army firing range in Japan.

Attorneys will press appeals filed by both Girard and the government from last Tuesday's decision by Federal District Judge Joseph C. McGarraghy. That ruling barred a Japanese trial for Girard.

Court aids said Douglas will be notified of the decision to hear the appeals. But it was not known whether he will cancel his trip.

Plans of Chief Justice Earl Warren and Justice Tom C. Clark to attend an American Bar Assn. meeting in London July 24-30 will not necessarily be affected by the Girard arguments.

Justice Harold H. Burton is Europe bound, too. He has a steamship reservation for July 13.

Both Held in Burglaries At Eldorado

Part of Money in Loot Found Strawn On Billman Road

Two men from Princeton, Ind., were jailed this morning by state police following a chase and hunt which started when the state officers became suspicious of their actions.

The two, Marshall Mims and Austin Jones, are held in connection with the burglaries early today of the Town House cafe and Carter's service station on Route 45 in the south part of Eldorado.

Part of the loot, which was money, was found strawn on the Billman road where it was thrown when the two state policemen, Guthrie Alexander of Harrisburg and Mike Taggart of Ridgway, gave chase.

Find Auto on Rt. 45

Alexander said one of them admitted the two burglaries at Eldorado. Also, White county officers were coming to Harrisburg to question them about burglaries there.

Alexander and Taggart said they were patrolling near the Routes 45-142 intersection around 2 a. m. today when they saw an auto off Route 45 near the city limits, with a tank full of gasoline and the key still in the ignition switch.

The officers, seeking to check out the car to see if it were stolen, found it in operating condition and drove it to the intersection.

Moments later Mims and Jones walked up from Route 142 south and said that it was their car, that it had stopped on them. They said they were en route to Harrisburg.

The officers turned over the auto to them and started trailing them at a distance.

Try to Run Police Off Road

At Muddy curve, they said, they approached the car returning toward Eldorado and turned around also. Alexander said that they then were certain that the two were up to something and that if they turned south on Route 142, from where they had come on foot, they would arrest them on suspicion, figuring they had left something in that area.

The two did turn south and stopped their auto about 50 yards south on the blacktop Billman road, the officers stated, one getting out of the car and then returning to it.

The officers, back a distance, then turned on their spotlight and ran up to arrest them. The two jumped in their car, however, turned it around, and started back toward Eldorado, trying to run the squad car off the road.

The officers turned around and caught up with the two at the B and M cafe on Route 45. There Mims surrendered to officers and Jones fled into a field.

The two policemen took Mims to the Eldorado city jail and called Deputy Sheriff Charles Donelson of Eldorado, the trio beginning a hunt for Jones.

At 4 a. m. they received word that Stat. Policeman John Great-house had arrested Jones at gunpoint hiding in a culvert near Norris City. Alexander and Taggart picked him up and brought him and Mims to the Saline county jail.

The money that was thrown away when the two were nearly caught on the Billman road was being picked up this morning and counted.

State police said they learned that Jones has quite an arrest record. In 1951 he was arrested at Princeton, Ind., on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. In 1954 he was arrested in Evansville on a charge of auto larceny. In 1955 he was arrested in Chicago on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon. And in 1956 he was arrested in Springfield, O., on a burglary charge. He also received an undesirable discharge from the army in April, 1955.

Mims, it was stated, was arrested only a few days ago at Princeton on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

The officers said that in the Eldorado burglaries a door was jimmied at the Town House and that a door was kicked out at the service station.

We never outgrow a need for milk, says Mrs. Agnes Ridley, a Southern Illinois University home economist. That is a popular way of expressing scientific findings that the same milk nutrients which nature devised for the growth of babies are equally ideal for maintaining a healthy, vigorous body throughout life.

Milk is mentioned often in June because that is the period which has been designated by the dairy industry through the American Dairy Association as Dairy Month. It comes in that season of the year when milk production generally is at its highest volume following the late winter freshening of many dairy cattle and the shift of herds from drylot feeding to lush spring pastures.

With banners, advertisements, and attractive displays of dairy products in the retail markets, consumers are encouraged to use more milk and related foods. Not only does the abundant supply of milk in June usually mean lower costs to the consumer, but by boosting consumption the dairy industry is able to reduce the seasonal surplus production and keep the general level on a more even keel.

Mrs. Ridley points out that the dairy industry is doing much to help the housewife with her food shopping and cooking problems. The industry constantly is producing new products, improving others, finding new ways to use milk, and providing new means of dispensing dairy products. Milk and milk products are both nutritious and economical. Milk protein is less expensive per ounce than other high quality animal proteins that are needed for rebuilding body tissues daily throughout our lives. Milk also is the most economical source of calcium in the American's diet.

Poultry flock owners have problems in summer just as they have in the winter, but the type may be different. One problem is the giving of good care to pullets intended for laying flock replacement. Poultrymen say that the value of a good range area, separate from the yard where adult chickens are housed, can hardly be overemphasized.

Having the range pasture situated so that a three-year rotation plan be practiced is most desirable. That is, have pullets on one area only one year in three, and use the two intervening years for cropping the field.

Growing pullets need good feed, plenty of sunshine, and plenty of water. Even though it is possible to obtain in other forms the various vitamins which are supplied by good range pasture, a succulent crop of legumes, such as ladino clover, alfalfa, or lespedeza, provides these much more cheaply than buying them commercially. Supplementary growing mash may be made available in feeders, and some grain or pellet feed may be supplied. If the flock is large the farmer may save much labor by having feeders on skids which can be pulled about with a tractor or small truck. A grain drill may be used to distribute grain and pelleted feed.

Quite often the range forage will become short and scarce, particularly in the vicinity of the range shelters, later in the summer. Having the shelters on skids will make it possible to pull them to a new location in the pasture where the forage is better. When all the range becomes depleted of legume forage it is important that vitamin A be provided in other feeds thru the use of codliver oil or alfalfa leaf meal. Vitamin A deficiency may be noticeable among pullets by a staggering gait, emaciation, ruffled plumage, and pale combs and wattles.

Range shelters and other forms of shade are important in the range area to give growing pullets some protection from the hot midday sun in summer. A-shaped shelters, 10 by 10 feet, with coarse wire mesh bottoms and ends have been found practical at SIU, giving good air circulation in hot weather and

Shape Christmas Trees for Profits

DIXON SPRINGS—Growing Christmas trees without benefit of shearing or shaping is a poor investment.

Robert Nelson, extension forester at the University of Illinois Dixon Springs Experiment Station in Pope county, says you should not rely on Mother Nature alone to produce high-quality trees with good form and density, even in well-spaced plantations.

Nelson says only about one tree in three will be salable without proper care. With proper shearing and shaping, you can increase the salability to three out of four trees.

Shape the trees by cutting back the terminal leader so that only 8 to 12 inches of terminal growth remains from the last whorl of branches. Make the cut in the current year's growth. At the same time, cut off the tips of branches that are growing too fast to produce a symmetrical tree. These trees usually have put on protection during rain storms. Covered feeders mounted on the shelter sides and opening toward the inside provide opportunity for feeding during rainy weather or when a hot day drives the birds to shade.

Plenty of water is important. A pressure system or storage tanks, using float shutoffs in the waterers, will save much labor if the pullet flock is large.

Allotment Available For Farms With No Wheat for Three Years

Farmers on land on which no wheat was seeded for grain for any of the years 1955, 1956 and 1957, may apply for a 1958 wheat acreage allotment, according to Herman Driskell, chairman of the Saline County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee. To be considered for an allotment on a farm which had no wheat seeded for grain for any of those years, the farmer must apply in writing to his county ASC committee by July 1, 1957.

Blank application forms are available at the ASC county office in the city hall, Harrisburg, for use in filing requests for allotments.

Plant peonies where they will get plenty of sun, because they will not bloom if there is too much shade.

enough new growth by the middle of June to permit pruning.

Shearing is not so severe as shaping in most cases, according to the forester. It consists simply of clipping the tree into a symmetrical Christmas tree shape.

Start both shearing and pruning several years before the trees are due to be marketed, Nelson suggests.

Hot Stuff
MOUNT VERNON, Ill. (UP)—Truck driver Ronald Adeock is a dutiful man who picks things up and takes them where they're supposed to go, no matter how objectionable the job may be.

When a fire broke out in his garbage truck, Adeock saw his duty clearly. He drove the smoldering truck straight to the fire department, objectionable odor of frying table scraps and all.

The United States takes more than three-fifths of all the tin exports of Malaya.

House Supporters Push Action on Senate-Voted Hells Canyon Dam

WASHINGTON (UP)—House supporters of the Senate-passed bill for construction of a government high dam at Hells Canyon pushed today for quick action on the controversial measure.

Senate Republican opponents of the federal dam, angrily accused Democrats of swapping votes on the civil rights bill to obtain passage of the Hells Canyon measure.

The Senate voted 45-38 Friday night for the government dam after three days of hot debate on the public-versus-private power issue.

The action was a slap at the Eisenhower administration which had authorized the Idaho Power Co. to build three privately-owned low dams in the canyon. Construction already has begun on two of the three dams on a stretch of the Snake River between Idaho and Oregon.

Chairman Clair Engle (D-Calif.) said his House Interior Committee would get to work on the Senate bill "as quickly as possible."

Even if the House passes the bill, it would face an almost certain presidential veto. It would take a two-thirds majority vote by both houses to override a veto. This seemed unlikely in view of the close Senate vote on passage Friday.

Sen. Charles E. Potter (R-Mich.) charged that civil rights legislation was "sold down the river" by some Northern Democrats in a "deal" to secure the Hells Canyon bill.

Engle said he thought chances of House approval were "very definitely improved" because of reaction to Idaho Power Co.'s rejection of fast tax write-off certificates.

The company announced it would give up the special tax benefits on the eve of the Senate vote on the bill. Democrats have accused the company of trying to sway votes by the action.

South Korea Cancels Leaves In Attack Alert

SEOUL (UP)—South Korea cancelled all military leaves today and placed its 700,000 soldiers, sailors and airmen on a full alert today in apparent anticipation of a possible Communist attack.

Deputy Defense Minister Kim Chong Kap said the alert was "routine." There was little doubt, however, that it was meant as a safeguard against Red retaliation by force for the Allied decision to match the Communist arms build-up in Korea.

Kim said South Korea's troops are alerted every year on about June 25—the anniversary of the Communist invasion in 1950—as a means of "intensifying training and checking equipment."

Leaves Unexplained

He did not explain why it was necessary to cancel leaves, indicating that some soldiers had been excused from duty, if the alert had been planned for some time.

Unofficial sources pointed out that the alert was ordered a matter of hours after the Western decision to modernize the defenses of South Korea was reported to President Syngman Rhee.

Communist propagandists in Asia denounced the Allied decision today as a "plot that seriously threatens peace in the Far East."

In South Korea and Nationalist China, however, the decision was hailed as a morale-building measure that will prove "the free world means business." America's Far Eastern friends lamented only that the move was "long overdue."

There are an estimated 335,000 Communist troops from China in North Korea—approximately 33% Red divisions. Allied forces in South Korea include 2 U. S. divisions and scattered units from other western nations.

Tornadoes and Windstorms Hit Midwest Areas

By United Press

Black tornado columns spiraled across the Midwest Friday touching at Nebraska and Kansas, while severe windstorms and heavy rains did their share of damage to the punished area.

At least one person was killed when a tornado cut into the northern part of Hutchinson, Kan., tearing down power lines, and igniting a series of fires. Winds reaching 98 miles per hour ripped the roof off a building and sent it crashing into the home of Steven Chlontcos, 35. Chlontcos was killed and his son Ted, 5, taken to a hospital.

Power lines crumpled under the weight of falling trees and started short circuits and fires which emptied the firehouses as equipment was rushed to combat the blazes.

Four turkey houses were demolished when a small tornado swept into a turkey farm near Bellwood, Neb. No injuries were reported.

Local flooding followed an inch-and-a-half rain that accompanied the Bellwood storm.

Highway, in north central Kansas were barricaded with fallen trees as severe thunderstorms blew through the area.

Meanwhile, tornado alerts and high winds dominated weather reports in Oklahoma, southwestern and central Iowa, northwest Missouri and most of eastern Kansas.

Alert Naval Bases for Signs Of Oriental Flu

WASHINGTON (UP)—Naval bases on both the Atlantic and Pacific seaboard have been alerted to watch for any sign of the highly contagious "Oriental flu," a Defense Department spokesman said today.

Some 550 men at the Newport, R. I., Naval Base apparently have been stricken with the disease which first appeared on the China mainland and then swept across Asia.

U. S. Surgeon General Leroy Burney announced Friday night that all 48 state officers were notified in hurry-up telephone calls of the unexpected outbreak on the Eastern Seaboard.

Government health officers had been keeping a close watch at Pacific ports and have detected a few cases. "The government now is checking Atlantic coast naval bases as well, possibly to detect the spread of the disease from Europe."

BIG NEWS!

The Church may not have its name blazoned across every front page, but it is big news just the same.

From infancy to old age, the Church offers many things to each and every individual.

The Church introduces human beings to God.

The Church develops man's spiritual life through experiences of worship.

The Church emphasizes the beautiful through its architecture, its services, whether ritualistic or informal, its music.

The Church develops leaders through its many activities.

The Church broadens man's outlook through its work of sending the gospel to those in far-away places.

The Church exemplifies the brotherhood of man through the welcome it extends to all who believe.

Last, and most important of all, the Church offers salvation and the assurance of eternal life for every believer.

Big news—the Church! Can you afford to miss it?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values.
Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1)
For his own sake. (2) For the children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4)
Which needs his moral and spiritual support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

"Recognizing God's Providence"

June 23, 1957
Genesis 39:1-14:52
By Dr. Archie E. Brown
GOLDEN TEXT: "But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear Him." (Psalm 103:17).

INTRODUCTION—One of the greatest needs in the lives of people today is to be able to recognize the hand of God in their experiences. How about that problem that faces you today? Do you recognize the hand of God in it?
How about that sorrow, that illness, that financial loss, that adversity? Yes, how about that good fortune, that stroke of "good luck" that has come your way? Do you recognize that God is trying to work through that experience in your life to get glory for Himself, and at the same time to guide your destiny?

We call such experiences "providence." God works through providence many times. Nothing ever "just happens." This is especially true in the life of a Christian.
Christians are children of God by adoption. God guides them through acts of providence—sometimes pleasant—sometimes unpleasant. It is our duty to recognize his works of providence.

Let us look at the life of Joseph as an example of God's providence.
I JOSEPH BELONGED
TO GOD (39:1-6)

How could any good ever come to Joseph by placing him in slavery? Please note that God was not the author of the evil deeds of Joseph's brothers. However, God did use those evil deeds to bring about ultimate good in Joseph's life.

Joseph was brought down into Egypt. God was with him during all his adversity and "bad luck."
God caused him to prosper so that even Joseph's keeper noticed that "God was with him." He made Joseph overseer of his house, and "all that he had he put into his hand." God then blessed Pontiph's house "for Joseph's sake."

How many homes today are being blessed because one of God's children dwells therein! Some Christian has suffered heart-break; yet clings to faith in God. God uses that bit of providence to be a blessing to others. Oh, Me! what a glorious thing to be a child of God!

II GOD DELIVERED JOSEPH FROM TEMPTATION (39:7-21)

How many men would have reacted as did Joseph in this situation. You will have to read for yourself the temptation with which Joseph was faced. Pontiph's wife was determined that she would have her way with Joseph.
God was with Joseph! He refused to compromise his religious convictions. God has promised His children that, "there hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it." (1 Cor. 10:13).

Even after Pontiph's wife had lied about Joseph and caused him to be placed in prison, God blessed Joseph's faithfulness. Joseph became keeper of all the prisoners.

III JOSEPH, THE DREAM INTERPRETER (40:1-23)

Joseph had been a dreamer earlier in his life. When he told his dreams to his brothers, they sold him into slavery. Now, Joseph finds two of the kings men in prison with himself. Each of these men had a dream which, with God's help, Joseph interpreted. Joseph predicted that one of the men would be released and restored to the King's household within three days. He told the other man that on the third day he would be hanged to a tree and the birds would eat his flesh.
Joseph's predictions came true.

IV PHARAOH'S DREAM (41:1-52)

Pharaoh had a dream. He became quite disturbed over it. He called in his wise men and fortune-tellers for an interpretation. They could not give him an interpretation. The man, whose dream Joseph had interpreted in prison two years before, now told Pharaoh about Joseph. (Two long years Joseph had been forgotten by man —not by God.)

Joseph interpreted Pharaoh's dream. He told him that there would be seven "fat years" followed by "seven lean years."

Joseph was placed second in command of Egypt, only to Pharaoh.
He gathered grain and food during those seven "fat years" and saved a nation from starving during those seven years of famine which followed.

CONCLUSION—Every act of providence in Joseph's life turned out to be a blessing. Why? Because, "the Lord was with him." Friend, God is abundantly able to turn your night into day, your adversities into blessings and your sorrows into joys. Why not give God a chance in your life? Why not recognize His hand in whatever problem faces you today?
Trust Him!

Cards Sign New Bonus Pitcher

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals today added their third bonus baby to their current roster, signing 18-year-old right-handed pitcher Bob Miller of St. Louis to an estimated $30,000 contract.

Miller, a fast-baller, pitched the Stockham Post team to the American Legion national championship last year. He was one of the few pitchers to hold a victory over another Cardinal bonus pitcher, 18-year-old Von McDaniel of Hollis, Okla.

McDaniel, who has been sensational in less than a month after graduating from high school, lost to Miller, 3-0, in the Legion play-offs last year.

Miller, who scout Joe Monahan calls the finest high school pitcher he has seen in 11 years of scouting the St. Louis area, had a 12-0 record at Beaumont High School of St. Louis this spring and has a mark of 44-3 for the past two seasons in both American Legion and high school play.

Rookie Hurler Draws Praise Of Cardinal Fans

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Von McDaniel, the St. Louis Cardinals 18-year-old rookie, was drawing the loudest baseball hallelujahs in these parts today since the debut of Dizzy Dean.

Signed to a $50,000 bonus three weeks ago, McDaniel, younger brother of the Cards' Lindy McDaniel, made his first big league starting assignment Friday night one to remember with a near-flawless two-hit 2-0 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Cardinal Manager Freddie Hutchinson, concerned that young Von might be unnerved by his first starting assignment, didn't tell him about it until three hours before the game. But the youngster didn't bat an eyelash.

A crowd of 27,972 gave him a standing ovation after he pitched his way out of a none-out bases-full jam in the sixth inning.

In two previous four-inning relief stints prior to Friday night's start, young McDaniel allowed only two hits and did not give up a run while striking out nine batters and walking none. In posting his second victory Friday night, he struck out four and walked two.

Giambra, Calhoun Battle to Draw, Want Rematch

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Skillful Joey Giambra and aggressive Rory Calhoun, ranking middleweight contenders who fought to an unusual 10-round draw Friday night, don't want a championship fight—they want a rematch.

What was closest to the hearts of both fighters today was a chance to prove the draw was a "fluke," although the state's boxing rules have a supplemental point system to make such a decision a rarity.

The fourth-ranked Giambra, a slight favorite going into the fight, weighed 157½ and the sixth-ranked Calhoun weighed 159.

Referee Ruby Goldstein scored it for Calhoun, 54-1 and Judge Nick Gamboli gave the same margin to Giambra. Judge Frank Forbes gave each fighter four rounds with two rounds even. His card also had an even five points for each boxer under the supplemental point system. The United Press card gave it to Giambra, 54-1.

The glass snake is not a snake, but a legless lizard. It gets its name from the fact that it looks like a snake and its tail breaks off as easily as glass, as well as the fact that it looks as if it were made of glass.

Lawrence Welk takes off on a two week talent hunt in Europe starting June 27—his shows will be on film during his absence. Janette Davis, singer and producer of Arthur Godfrey's "talent Scouts," is sporting a diamond engagement ring—a gift of Frank Musiello, one of Godfrey's staffers.

Hal March got the emcee job on the new panel show, "What's the Use." The show centers around the identification of crazy inventions and the panel includes Abe Burrows and Nina Foch. The lip-stick sponsor of "The $64,000 Question" is trying to land a berth for the show on CBS-TV.

When A. C. Nielsen, the head of the TV survey outfit, guests on Ed Murrow's "Person to Person," July 28, he won't be able to check his own Nielsen rating. The Nielsen survey takes a vacation that week and Mr. Nielsen will have to depend upon Trendex.

Adventure Show Slated
"Panic" and "To Tell the Truth," both of which were shaky for a while, got renewals. Lovell Thomas' new one-hour show for CBS-TV will be called "Search for Adventure"—seven episodes are scheduled for next fall.

Kathy Nolan of the upcoming ABC-TV filmed western, "The Real McCoy's," is back on the job after suffering a mild concussion—she was conked by a mike boom. ABC-TV is wooing Van Johnson for a new series slated to start in January.

Barbara Hall, the chorine who has won $32,000 on "The $64,000 Question," did an audition this week for the American Shakespeare Festival Theatre at Stratford, Conn. Billy Graham's tenure with ABC-TV was extended for four more weeks to July 20.

NEW YORK (AP)—The channel swim:

Frank Sinatra will feature Bob Hope and Dinah Shore on his first ABC-TV show next fall. For later shows, Frank plans to spot Jack Benny, Arthur Rubinstein and at least one of his own kids, Frankie, who is a piano player. Martha Rountree and Oliver Presbrey, who celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary this week, are mulling over an offer to do a husband-and-wife radio-TV show from Washington. Larry Gelbart, former Sid Caesar gagman, will turn out material for the new ABC-TV Patrice Munsel show.

Yankees Beat Faltering White Sox, 4-2; Cardinals' Rookie Hurls Two Hitter

By United Press
The cocky, high-riding New York Yankees have been saying all along that it was only a matter of time until they would overtake the faltering Chicago White Sox, and they way they have figured, today could be the time.

Only a half-game behind the White Sox now as a result of their 4-2 victory over them Friday night, the Yanks, shooting for their ninth straight victory, can take over the American League lead for the first time since May 9 if they beat Chicago again today.

Johnny Kucks, who pitched the first six innings Friday night and left with the score 3-2 in his favor, was the winner, but reliever Bob Grim also won praise when he held Chicago to one hit in the last three innings and struck out the side in the ninth. Jim Wilson was the loser.

The Yanks scored the two runs that decided the game in the fourth inning on singles by Yogi Berra, Andy Carey and Bobby Richardson, coupled with a sacrifice and a perfect squeeze bunt by Kucks.

Stobbs Finally Wins
In other American League action, Washington southpaw Chuck Stobbs snapped his 16-game losing streak with a 6-3 victory over Cleveland; Baltimore defeated Detroit, 6-5, and Boston beat Kansas City, 4-3.

The St. Louis Cardinals padded their National League lead to 1½ games with a 2-0 triumph over Brooklyn; Philadelphia defeated Milwaukee, 6-1; Pittsburgh topped Cincinnati, 3-2, in 11 innings and the Giants outlasted the Cubs, 12-10, in 10 innings.

Rookie Hurls Two-Hitter

Young Von McDaniel, the $50,000 bonus beauty, checked the Dodgers on two hits in his first major league start. St. Louis scored its first run off rookie Danny McDevitt in the sixth and
